LOCAL BREVITIES.

R gular meeting of the school board tonight. Assignment of teachers for the coming term will be announced. the Grand Army day committees meet tonight to close up the business of the encampment and strike a balance. The amusement season of 1885-6 opens at the Grand next Friday night, when Frank McNish's specialty company assume the responsibility and promise a good programme. Several attractions are booked for next month.

The element among the local democracy that used to court for something, was conspicuous by its absence from Saturday's convention. Abe Lessner, Judy Aron, Louis Weixelbaum and Commissioner Constantine were the ruling spirits. Also Jakesmith, The society of the army of West Virginia, (Crook's command) will hold its Nigth annual rennion at Portsmouth, September 16, 17 and 18. Some of the most distinguished sold ers of the war are expected. General Logan has declared his intention to be present. The 14th and their right bower, the 36 h Ohio, formed part of this command. Negotiations are pending between the Malleables and Xenias for the return game of base ball, to be played on association park here some day the last of this week. Marager Fisher expects a definite decision on the matter to-morrow. Next Sunday the Bee Line will run an excursion from here to Ciacintati for the Cincinnati St. Louis game, Springfield chapter, No. 48, R. A. M., holds the regular convocation to-night for conferring the Royal Arch degree. Resident and visiting companions are invited to be present. It is reldom that work in the Mas mic bodies extends as late into the heated term as it has done this season. The fact shows the prevailing prosperity of the ancient order, locally.

THE MONUMENT TO GRANT.

Gen. Burdette Siyr the G. A. R. Will Erect One -President's Hayes' Pian. A Washington dispatch says: Gen. S. S. Bordette, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, returned here yesterday from the G. A. R encampment at Gettysburg, Pa., and Springfield, O. To a Republican reporter Gen. Burdette today said that at each of those places he spoke to the veterans regarding the erection of a monument to Gen Grant, and they were unanimously in fixor of its location in Washington, "It would have done you good," said he, "to see the enthusiasm that was awakened at the chance given the boys to bonor their dead commander. The Grand Army proposes to su scribe ten cents from every member, and there are 300,000 of them throughout the country. They dean to erect a monument to General Guant in Washington, and I don't think the day is far distant when General Grant's remains will be placed for final rest 1: Washington,"

In reply to General R. B. Hayes's suggertion that the authorities of the G A R, encourage their committee to contribute to the building of a monument on the grave of General Grant, General Burdette says: "I have been unable to bring my mind into accord with yours on that point. I hold to the opinion that the Grand Army will desire first of all to erect its own distinctive monunent to our camrade, not at a great cost, but for that purpose raising only 90m 83 composed of the equal contribution of each individual comrage shall be within the reach and the glad gift of the poorest. The national monument to be erected to General Grant should be of such proportions and cost as to be beyond the reach of private benevolence, and of right and propriety ought to be ordered by the congress of the United States and paid for out of the national treasury, and that consequently the Grand Army should not be called on for the effort you indicate." The Season For Soldier's Reunions.

There will be a meeting tomorrow evening at R B Carfield's business room, next door east of the Gronn-REPUBLIC office on Main street, of ex-members of the 10th and 17th Obio batteries, resident here, to make arrangements for the joint reunion of the two commands in this city, October 1 and 2, next, It is proposed to make special efforts to the end that this affair shall eclipse any reunion yet held, Lieutenant Gage, of the 10th, and Lieutenant Mastox, of the 17th, will be here Lieutenent Bonteco writes from Petoskey, Mich., where he is running a paper, that he will be smalle to attend this year, owing to the demands of business.

Among the coming events in which Clark county is interested are the following: At Kenton, August 21, 4th O. V. I ; Lakeside, Angust 19, 20 and 21, 23d O. V. I.; at B. lief entaine, August 19, 15th O. V. I.

The next annual meeting of the society of the army of the Tennersee will be held at Chicago, September 9 and 10. General John B. Sanborn, of St. Paul, will deliver the annual address.

Good Words for Springfield. Of list week's session in this city of the Grand Lodge Onio F. & A. M. (colored order) the special correspondent of the Commercial-Gazette says: "The session was attended with the most liberal hospitality from the citizens of Springfield and the kindest consideration by the press. A resolution on the death of General Grant was ununimously adopted, and Piqua, O., chosen for the next place of meeting, in August, 1886 During the session Captala A. S. Bushnetl entertained, at his works, quite a large number of the delegates, who were delighted at his generous urban-

CLOSING NCENE

Last Day of the Urbana Camp Meeting-Immense Crowds in Attendance.

The Urbana Camp Meeting never had a nore successful day than yesterday in all its past history. The cost weather and almost otal absence of dust, combined with the fact that it was Sunday and the last day of the meeting, served to attract an immeese crowd of people to the grounds, and the narrow avenues were jammed with people, while the space without the circle of cottag s was a solid control and all danger to the surrounding mass of carriages. As is usual on the last day the services were of a very interesting nature. The regular prayer-neeting was wagon during the course of the fire and held at five o'clock and at eight they again gathered in the tabernacle to participate in the love teast, which was conducted with much soul-inspiring enthusiasm and was productive of very satisfactory results. At the regular ten o'clock service Dr. William Runyan, of Xenia, preached an elequent sermon. The tabernacle was packed to its fullest capacity with a dense rowd of eager listeners standing about the edges of the house. At the same hour an overflow meeting at the stand near the dining hall, attended by over 1,000 people, was conducted by Rev. William I, Fee and C. W. Thompson of New Jersey, a famous young evangelist. Rev. Sam Jones, the great revivalist who has done such noble work at Louisville and Cincinnati was expected to preach yester-lay but was detained by other duties, much to the disappointment of many who had gone to the grounds for the purpose ot bearing bim.

At 1:30 p. m., a very enthusiastic children's meeting, conducted by Rev. G. F. Oliver, of Burton, O., was held in the tabernacle. As this was the last children's meeting to be held, it closed with a general handshaking throughout the house. At 3 o'clock Dr. Leonard, of this city, preached in the tabernacle and attracted the largest andience of the day by his fiery eloquence. At 4:30 a young people's meeting was held in the tabernacle, while the older ones gathered for of which have, ordinarily, been content to the same purpose at the prayer tent. At the receive pay for camp service weeks and same time another large meening, conducted by C. W. Thompson and J. G. Talbot, of Urbana, was held at the stand below. At six o'clock a demchinent of the salvation army from this city conducted a well attended meeting at this same stand. The last services of the day were held at the Tabernacle at 7:30, where Rev. Dr. W. M. Mneullesix, of Columbus, preached one of his first sermons. Throughout the whole day the meetings were crowded and still the crowd on the avenues kept increasing as carriage after carriage from Urbana, West Liberty, Springfield, and other neighboring towns poured in and unloaded their human eight on the grounds. It seemed as though everybody within a circle of ten miles had closed their house, donned their Sunday dreadful disease consumption-will best, and came to camp meeting. The roads speedy relief and in a majority of centering at the grounds could be marked permanent cure. The proprietor has an hor for miles by the lines of rising dust, kept up by a perfect procession of vehicles going and coming. Among the Springfield people who went up yesterday were: A. C. Black, Dr. T. R. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. John Blount, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Little, Miss Nelle Johnson and her guests the Misses Jones, of Findley, Miss Fannie Foley, Miss Mary Cassilly, Miss Coric Douglas, Miss Mary Rolgers, Miss Mary Rubbits, Miss Nannie McKnight, Miss May Bowman, Miss Laura Seitz, Randolph Coleman, Jim Donnel, Ralph Bartholomew, J. The cottagers began breaking camp early this morning-a rather doleful duty, as the meeting just finished has been one of the most satisfactory they have known.

The Pair Ground Bugaboo. The grand army boys and not a few citizens ere builty torn up over the statements made at the meeting of the agricultural board last Saturday regarding the condition in which the fair grounds were left by last week's encampusest. They deny that any special hunage has been done; certainly not more than can be remedied long before the time for the county fair. The flare-up was, of course, for effect in the coming hearing of the injunction case. In a squad of citizens discursing the matter, the propriety of taking the grounds, which are owned by the county, not by the board, out of the hands of the agricultural society, and converting them in-The republican wigwam has received a coat of deep red paint, and the striking appearance it gives the building is remarkable. Among the many pleasant features of the Navy men's reunion at the late G. A. R. encampment, I beg space in your columns to particularly mention the reception given the sailor men by our genisl and gallant Colonel Kilpatrick and his excellent wife at their pleasant home, where an open house and cordial welcome was the order of the day.

None that partook of that welcome and good cheer will soon forget the donors. Long may they live, and all good things attend them" was the unanimous sentiment of those fortunate enough to be there.

In behalf of my shipmates and at their equest-allow me to return their especial thanks to Mrs. Smith, of Cleveland, the Colmel's guest, for the pleasure she afforded one and all by reciting two beautiful poems in a thrilling manner, the last of which, "The Wreck," brought a suspicious moisture to many eyes not accustomed to weeping for "Lo! these many years." If it will be any compensation for the lady to know that she filled the hearts of her sailor audience wit the pleasantest emotions and the most kindly remembrances of herself she has that assu ance from one who will never forget that he was there. Calculi Resolvent M'F.c. vo., 70 Water street:
Gentlemen—For years I have as times been trunoled from torped liver, and also, more or less, from Kinney affection. Some time ggs, when in the condition above mentioned, I procured a bottle of your Calculi Resolvent. At the time my arrine was very red, and the sediment assumulated during the night had somowhat the appearance of brick dust. Hefore I had completed the bottle usy liver seemed to set 1.2c a new one, and the urine cleared up, the offensive swell left it, and now no deposit is found when it stands a few hours I give this statement on asked, -nd, if worth and no backed, and off worth reliable to form when it is tands a few hours I give this statement on asked, -nd, if worth and no backed, and a the colour of the condition as to the condition as to the condition as to the condition of the condition of these similarity afflicted, you may use it asyou like. Yours traity.
